

On and off line friendships

In small groups, sort the scenario cards into the venn diagram. Then discuss the findings.

Stay connected with friends.

Make arguments as a group.

Share photos with family.

Share photos with friends.

Go to the park.

Play games.

Group chats.

Name-calling.

Misunderstandings

Go swimming.

Encourage and support each other.

'Like' things.

Talk about films,
books and TV.

Go to the cinema.

Go round for tea.

Play table tennis.

Go to dance class.

Make you feel good about yourself.

Kind.

Being unkind to someone several times on purpose (bullying).

Skype or Face Time video calls.

Feel left out.

Have fun.

Spread rumours.

Talk about someone else in an unkind way.

Make you feel upset.

Make you feel positive about how you look.

Make each other laugh.

Make you feel upset.

Positive and negative aspects of friendship

In groups, re-sort the cards into negative and positive aspects of friendship. Use the middle section of the diagram for aspects that may be both negative and positive. Reflect again on any findings.

