

BELONGING - A Toolkit to Support Inclusion in Schools

People Profiles

(Note to teacher: copy and cut out enough for one picture and related profile per person).

Sadie

Sadie was born in Australia and moved to France when she was little.

She moved to London three years ago and lived there ever since.

Being with people is the most important thing to her in her life.

She feels happy if someone is kind to her.

Mamataj

Mamataj was born in Bangladesh. She moved to London when she was two years old and has lived there ever since.

Things she likes are being alone reading or watching TV so she forgets everything, hanging out with her sisters, walking along the river with friends and helping others and improving our world.

Jummy

Jummy was born and grew up in London.

She loves where she lives in London because it is inclusive of all kinds of people.

Jessica

Jessica was born and grew up in London.

Having good health and everyone around her being happy is important to her, as well as having a successful career.

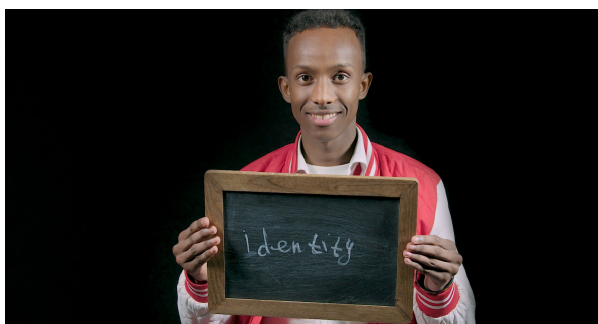

She likes having something to look forward to, being around people she likes and good weather.

(Name not given)

The most important thing to him in his life is his family and friends. He said people around him help him and make him feel good.

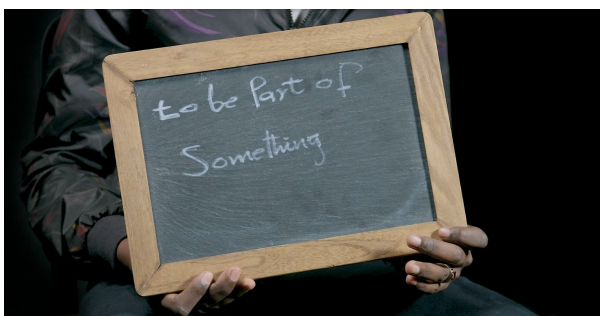

Abdulrahman

Abdulrahman was born in Somalia. He moved to London when he was 13 and has lived there ever since.

He thinks education and achieving goals are the most important things in life. He hopes to become a historian and likes travelling.

Abdalla

Abdalla was born in Sudan and moved to London to seek safety.

Education is the most important thing to him because he wants to be successful in life, so having education is a way of achieving it.

He likes talking and hanging out with people.

Mazin

Mazin was born in Sudan. He now lives in London.

He thinks the most important thing in life is to be good and help others in need.

Ula

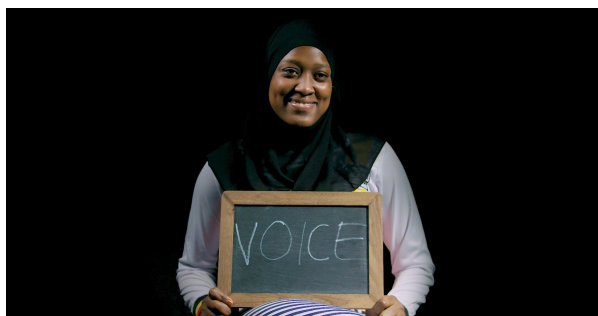

Ula was born in Australia and moved to France when she was little.

She moved to London three years ago and has lived here ever since.

She thinks the most important things in life are respect and kindness, as everyone is then happy and able to enjoy doing nice things.

Shamiha

Shamiha was born in Uganda. She moved to London two years ago, as a refugee.

She feels happy when her family and friends around her are happy, when she does something really well, and when she doesn't care about anything and feels free, especially when dancing.

Saacid

Saacid was born in Somalia. He moved to London when he was six and has lived there ever since.

Family is the most important thing to him as it helps him get good education and succeed in the future.

Lukas

Lukas was born in Lithuania and moved to the UK seven years ago and now lives in London.

The most important thing in his life is belonging and connecting with people, sharing experiences and feeling loved and respected.

He likes working on something that he loves and being able to be creative.

Fatima

Fatima was born and grew up in Bolton near Manchester.

Religion is the most important thing to her because she uses it as a model for how to live as a good person.

Her family and friends make her happy because without them she wouldn't be who she is today.

Laronn

Laronn was born in London and still lives there now.

His family and friends are the most important things to him because without them he would feel very lonely and unhappy.

He enjoys himself when he's with his friends playing online games.

Ijeoma

Ijeoma was born in Nigeria. She moved to London when she was two years old and lived there ever since.

Family and good friends are the most important things to her. She likes food and nice people.

Maryam

Maryam was born in London and grew up in Edinburgh in Scotland. She moved back to London a year ago.

She likes food, family, belonging to the community, arts and campaigning.

Oscar

Oscar was born in Lancaster in the north of England. He moved to London when he was three and lived there ever since.

He likes having fun and hanging out with friends, going out with friends or family, having a good meal and having a laugh or driving around the city.

Farid

Farid was born in Afghanistan. He came to the UK when he was 13 as a refugee.

He thinks education is important because it helps to empower people to create a better society and safety is important because his family have moved to new places many times in order to keep them safe.

He likes doing a lot of physical activities, achieving goals and helping people.

Filmon

Filmon was born in Sudan and lived in Eritrea when he was 10 for five years. He moved to England three years ago and lives in Coventry.

Education and working hard towards his life goals are the most important things to him.

He likes studying, drawing and listening to music.

Siti

Siti was born in Indonesia and now lives in London.

Helping people is the most important thing to her.

She likes meeting people from all parts of the world and making people smile.