

Different Feelings

When might you feel each of the feelings and emotions below? Draw or write your answers.

Happiness

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a child to draw or write their answer for the feeling of happiness.

Love

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a child to draw or write their answer for the feeling of love.

Loneliness

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a child to draw or write their answer for the feeling of loneliness.

Worry

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a child to draw or write their answer for the feeling of worry.

Frustration

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a child to draw or write their answer for the feeling of frustration.

Fear

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a child to draw or write their answer for the feeling of fear.

Excitement

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a child to draw or write their answer for the feeling of excitement.

Jealousy

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a child to draw or write their answer for the feeling of jealousy.