Easter English Revision Activity Booklet Answers

Saving Easter

1. Who receives a letter? Tick one.

☐	the unhappy children	☑	the Easter Bunny
☐	the chickens	☐	the hens

2. Find and copy the word that shows that the chickens are feeling very tired.

exhausted

3. How has the author changed the spelling of the adjective 'excellent'? Why have they done that?

The author has changed the word to 'eggcellent'. It is a joke using the word 'egg' because it is Easter. The letter is from the chickens and they are trying to make people laugh.

4. How is the Easter Bunny feeling after she receives the letter? Why?

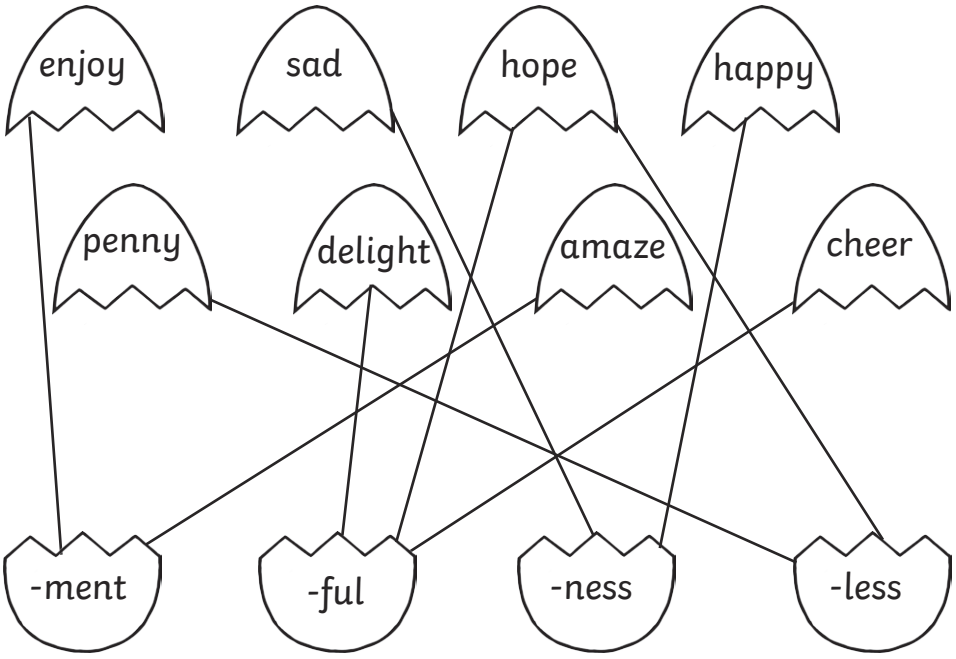
The Easter Bunny is feeling very upset because she thinks that Easter will be a disaster if there are no eggs.

5. Tick one word from the text that means the same as 'spoilt'.

☐	celebrated	☑	ruined	☐	watched

visit twinkl.com

Easter Egg Match-Up!



Two of the root words would need to change their spellings when the suffix is added. Which words are they?

penniless happiness

Could you use both of these words in an Easter-themed sentence?

e.g. My Grandma's happiness didn't last long because she is now penniless, after spending all her money on chocolate.

Celebrating Easter

1. When was Jesus Christ resurrected? Tick one.

☐ the Good Friday	☑ Easter Day
☐ Lent	☐ Ash Wednesday

2. Find and copy the meaning of the word 'resurrected'.

rose from the dead

visit twinkl.com

3. What does the author mean by 'naughty but nice', when they talk about the cakes and sweets?

The author means that they are naughty because we shouldn't eat a lot of sugary foods like cakes and sweets but they taste nice.

4. What would you find hard to give up for Lent? Why?

Child's own response.

Rabbit Poem

1. Find and copy the word that shows how the rabbit was moving.

hopping

2. What is the weather like? Tick one.

- [ ] rainy
- [ ] windy
- [x] lovely
- [ ] miserable

3. Why does the rabbit have the slightest frown?

e.g. I think the girl has been on an Easter egg hunt because I can see lots of chocolate eggs in her basket.

4. Tick the word that means the same as 'hinder'. Tick one.

- [x] distract
- [ ] look

- [ ] distract
- [ ] look

5. Who do you think the rabbit in the poem is?

The rabbit in the poem is the Easter Bunny.

visit twinkl.com

Reading an Easter Picture

1. How is the little girl feeling? How do you know?

   e.g. I think the girl is feeling happy because she has a big grin on her face.

2. What do you think she has been doing?

   e.g. I think the girl has been on an Easter egg hunt because I can see lots of chocolate eggs in her basket.

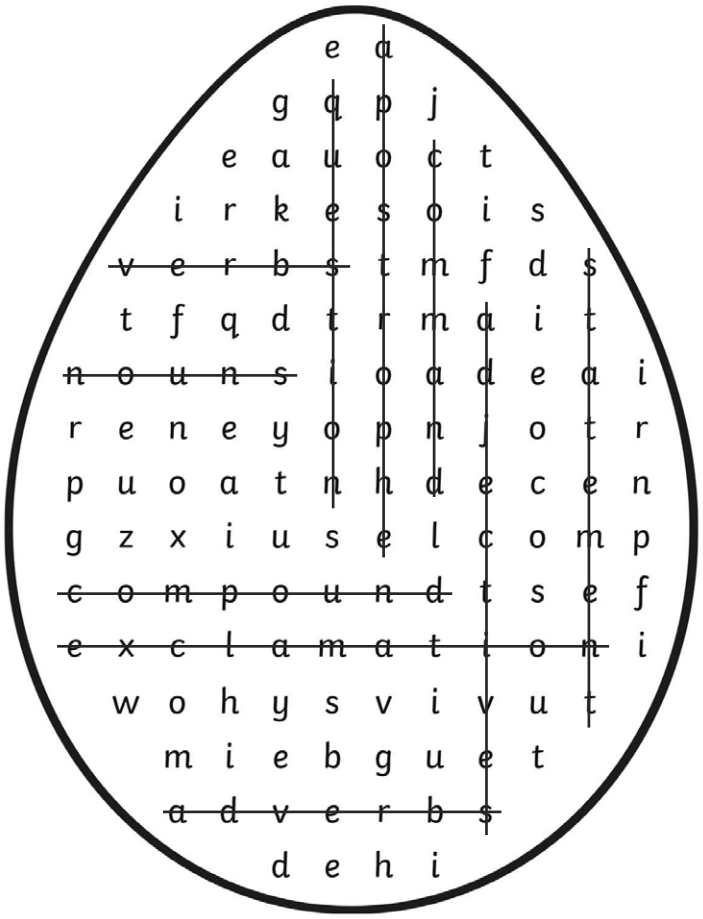
3. What do you think the weather is like?

   e.g. I think the weather might be slightly cold because the girl has a coat on and rosy cheeks.

4. What do you think she might do next?

   e.g. I think the girl might go and eat her chocolate because if I had some chocolate, I would eat it straight away.

Easter Egg Word Search



1. What a fabulous Easter present this is! This is an exclamation sentence.
2. Go and find the eggs. This is a command sentence.
3. Do you like chocolate? This is a question sentence.
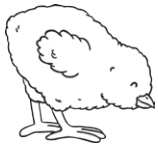
4. The Easter Bunny hides chocolate on Easter Day. This is a statement sentence.
5. Chocolate, rabbit, chicken, present and egg are all nouns.
6. Delicious, gooey, brown and fantastic are all adjectives.
7. Hunting, searching, eating and giving are all verbs.
8. Happily, excitedly, greedily and quickly are all adverbs.
9. Eggcup, footprint and cupcake are all compound words.
10. This punctuation mark (The Easter Bunny's basket) is called an apostrophe.

visit twinkl.com

Describe It!



The fluffy, golden chick

e.g. the beautiful, fragrant daffodils

e.g. the cheerful, generous Easter Bunny

e.g. a sticky, delicious hot cross bun

Now, draw some Easter pictures of your own and label them with expanded noun phrases.

Child's own responses.

visit twinkl.com