

June 2020

Dear Parents/Carers,

Welcome to the Summer Term Reading Newsletter. We hope you find this information useful to you and your child.

Mossfits Website

Our website has been updated and there is lots of information on how to help your child read at home. It contains resources to use at home, recommended books and lots of other useful tips. Please visit <https://www.mossfits.com/reading/> to find out more.

Reading at home

As you know, we have been uploading weekly planning on our website for each year group. There is work to be completed in reading and we also ask that you listen to your children read every day at home. Due to the present restrictions, we are unable to send reading books home. However, this shouldn't stop anyone from reading. Below are some useful websites for home:

Summer Reading Challenge

This year, Silly Squad, the Summer Reading Challenge 2020, will celebrate funny books, happiness and laughter. Children taking part in the Challenge will join the Silly Squad, an adventurous team of animals who love to have a laugh and get stuck in to all different kinds of funny books! It would be great for our children to get involved with this. For more information, go to <https://summerreadingchallenge.org.uk/> The official launch date is Friday 5th June and the challenge will run to September.

New book recommendations

For ages 4-5 and up

Ron might look the same as the other rhinos, but he's different. He doesn't want to be grumpy and grey – he wants to be bright, fun and to show off his true colours as a Rhinocorn!

For ages 6-8 and up

Telling the stories of twelve young activists inspiring change in their communities and around the world, this is a book to treasure and so too are the young people whose stories it contains. Celebrating young activists, in style, it will inform and inspire many more.

For ages 9 - 11 and up

Strange things are happened in the town of Sticky Pines: odd lights in the sky and people disappearing. Can Lucy and Milo unravel the mystery of Bigwoof?

National Book Token Competition

Some of our children might be interested in participating in a competition to win a £10 National Book Token for themselves and their classmates. To enter they need to design a book token. More information can be found at <https://www.nationalbooktokens.com/create-a-national-book-token-for-your-class>

The competition closes on Sunday 28th June. Good luck!
